Chapter 7

The Elemi sisters were on an airplane to see their Aunt.

“Hey Flare, can I have some crackers?” Shadow said.

“Sure-” Flare was broken off by a big CRASH!

“Mrow...” mewed Floof the mint-green cat.

“Why are my shoulders tingling?” Floof thought secretly in Flare’s bag.

“And what was that big crash?”

Chapter 2

Shadow and Flare parachuted on to what seemed to be a deserted island.

“How did the airplane crash on air?” Flare asked shadow.

“I don’t know.... WAIT- is that a... magic barrier???”

Shadow answered.

“Seems so.” Flare replied. They both walked in a small forest until they saw a shadowy silhouette.

“Ok... we must be dreaming because that is a dragon” WHAT?

Chapter 3

“You are not Dreaming, young ones.” said the royal and strong voice of the dragon.

“ I am the last of the good Dragons.”

“We are speaking to ROYALTY!” Shadow said ecstatically.

“I am fading away... I cannot defeat the evil ThunderStorm under these circumstances, but you three are special. You have to defeat him for me!”

“OK!” they both said in unison.

Chapter 4

After the dragon faded away, the girls brainstormed on what they heard.

“Wait; she said three” Flare noticed.

“Huh. Let's check our bags.” Shadow said. Pop! Floof jumped out of Flare's bag.

“Hi- wait... I CAN SPEAK!” she exclaimed.

“FLOOF!?!?” Shadow and Flare both screamed. Floof looked at Flare,

“Floof you have dragon wings!” and then... they saw it.

Chapter 5

It was 3 beautiful waterfalls, one each for fire, darkness, and dragon.

“Whoa...” Floof said. They all went to what seemed to be their waterfall and grabbed the gem that was inside. As soon as they touched it they all transformed. Flare got a magical fire bow with tons of arrows. Shadow got a scythe of darkness that could create force-fields. Floof’s wings grew bigger and she found out she could breathe fire! Suddenly a yellow electric dragon popped out of the bushes, ready to attack!

Chapter 6

“That must be ThunderStorm!” Floof yelled. They all attacked in unison, but he dodged it. He started charging up a lightning ball that would kill them all in one shot. Then Floof signaled to her owners and jumped on ThunderStorm as a diversion to buy some time. Flare shot her most powerful arrow and one to energize Floof. Shadow started making a force field in case Thunderstorm fully charged. Then Floof, with lots of energy, breathed the most powerful fire she could make at Thunderstorm and he was knocked unconscious. THE END.
